1. Gen. Cabell informed me that Cong. Scrivner had again raised the question as to the authenticity of the photographs showing new Soviet long-range bombers, and that Mr. Amory is now prepared to give Mr. Scrivner our evaluation of these photographs. I called Mr. Scrivner to inform him of this fact and he queried whether it might not be preferable to give our evaluation to the full Armed Services Appropriations Subcommittee rather than to him alone. I told Mr. Scrivner that we would rely on his judgment on this matter, but that it would appear best if we talked to him individually at first so that he could be apprised of the information, and then determine whether it would be necessary for us to inform the full Committee or perhaps allow him to do it without us. The latter would appear preferable.

Mr. Scrivner stated that he would like to see this information on the afternoon of 31 March, and that he would phone me around lunch time to let me know what time would be most convenient for him to see us.
